

THE PANAMERICAN CONFEDERATION RATIFIES THE SUPPORT TO MOACYR JUNIOR

The PanAmerican Confederation of Roller Sports, headed by its President Alberto Herrera, ratified the official endorsement to the aspiration of Mr. Moacyr Junior to the vice presidency of the International Federation of Roller Sports, FIRS, in the upcoming election of March in Nanjing, China.

“The PanAmerican Confederation of Roller Sports considers it fundamental to the development of the roller sports in our continent, to have presence in the organisms that govern these sports at world-wide level” assured the maximum hierarch of the PanAmerican roller sports.

Given his professional abilities and managerial capacities, Mr. Moacyr Junior, currently the President of the South American Confederation, unanimously received the support of the 16 countries present on the Congress of the PanAmerican Confederation held in Colombia in last December, last. The national Federations of, USA, Mexico, Guatemala, El Salvador, Costa Rica, Honduras, Puerto Rico, Dominican Republic, Cuba, Ecuador, Argentina, Venezuela, Paraguay, Uruguay, Brasil and Colombia, chose Moacyr Junior to be the representative for America at FIRS.

For the regents of the roller sports of the countries that are part of the PanAm Confederation, the work that has been advanced so far has been of great value, and the challenge is to continue to grow around the unity and development that has allowed the positioning of the roller sports worldwide.

Alberto Herrera, President of the PanAmerican Confederation, who also chairs the Colombian Federation of Roller Sports, reiterated that, "by attending principles of unity and disconnected from particular interests, the presidents of the federations of America decided to support the president of the Confederation of Brazil in this project. Now, with the strong support of friendly federations from other continents, we will seek to consolidate this leadership to strengthen our sports in the important processes that will come in the next four years".

The President of the PanAmerican Confederation, assured that with Moacyr Junior the Federations of America feel well represented, and are convinced that, from the Vice presidency of FIRS, we will have a great ambassador for all the countries of the world of roller sports.
